

Time for Giving

Auxiliary to the Harbor General Hospital at an open general meeting in the hospital auditorium on Oct. 1 presented its check to the hospital and took time out to say "thank you" to the Las Vecinas Woman's Club for its assistance to the hospital during the year. At the left, Mrs. J. L. Jordan of Las Vecinas accepts a plaque from Jerry Bosworth, assistant administrator, expressing the hospital's appreciation, and at right, Mrs. Paul Lorhan, auxiliary president, gives a check to Mr. Bosworth. Dr. Lorhan, husband of the president, gave an interesting and informative discussion entitled "Is Your Child on Drugs."

Fashion Benefit

Amid a profusion of autumn colors, the Volunteers for Children of the Harbor General Hospital will present their annual Fashion Luncheon on Oct. 23 at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club, 400 S. Broadway, Redondo Beach, at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. George Morehart is serving as general chairman of their major fund raising event of the year. She is being assisted by Mmes. Ned Warth, Earl Chambers, Mitchell Sims and Kenneth Geer.

The season's newest fashions will be provided by an area salon and Mrs. Ruby Wolf will serve as moderator. Modeling will be members of the Volunteers for Children and their daughters. They are Mmes. James Cassell, Carl Hoffman, Gilbert Bush, Michael Sims, Lynn Frantz; and Miss Robin Eatherly.

Proceeds from the annual fashion luncheon will go to the fund to purchase needed equipment for the pediatric ward at the hospital, which has not been provided for in the hospital budget.

The Volunteers also stage parties, purchase toys and gifts for the hospitalized children. Monthly parties as well as a mammoth Christmas party are given for these children.

Each of the Volunteers spend a minimum of four hours per week bathing or feeding a child, reading and entertaining him. Members not working in the ward serve in the clinic, assist in the laboratory, run errands, and assist wherever needed.

Proceeds from last year's benefit were used to purchase a monitoring machine for the nursery to save the lives of new premature babies.

Anyone wishing tickets for the show may contact Mrs. George Morehart, 18520 Kingsdale Ave., Redondo Beach, or Mrs. Mitchell Sims, 18824 Cerise Ave., Torrance.

Lodges Are Guests of Bethel 50

Job's Daughters Bethel 50 performed their ritualistic work for the Torrance Masonic Lodge and the Eastern Star Tuesday evening at the Temple.

Presiding officers were Billie Ott, honored queen; Debbie Fox, senior princess; Brenda Watt, junior princess; Kathi Bennett, guide; Debbie Ellison, marshal; Mrs. Charles Petersen, guardian; and Mr. Vic Fowler, associate guardian.

After the meeting, refreshments were served.

Friday evening, at 6 p.m., 85 Job's Daughters gathered at the Temple parking lot for a trip to Disneyland.

The Marshall's Bake sale was set for Oct. 12. This is a money making project to assist children with hearing problems.

Volunteer Workshop Set Oct. 29

Pointing toward making the Volunteer Bureau, South Bay-Harbor, a more effective and useful community agency, members are recruiting as many volunteers as possible for the Volunteer Workshop at Smith Brothers' Indian Village on Tuesday, Oct. 29, from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lois Stevens, executive director, reports acceptance from Mrs. Alexander Ripley, president of the Association of Volunteer Bureaus of America, to moderate a panel, and Mrs. Eleanor W. Hiller, chairman of the Women's Board of Terms and Parole, as luncheon speaker.

The importance of the Volunteer Workshop is further stressed by Mrs. Stevens because of the actual training in various fields of interest which will be given, thus making the Volunteer Bureau a more active and dynamic force in social services.
